GROUND HELD BY FRENCH.

Paris, April 28.—Tonight's war office statement said:

"The day has been relatively calm in Belgium, with no modification in the situation. We have retained the ground which we regained in the last three days."

"In Champagne the Germans took from us, in the region of Beaune, 50 meters of advanced trenches. We have retaken half of them."

"In the Argonne the Germans took from us, in the region of Beaune, 50 meters of advanced trenches. We have retaken half of them."

"At Les Eparges the enemy has been defeated, but delivered no further attack."

"The same thing has occurred at the Hartmannsweilerkopf. The Germans have directed an intense fire against the summit, but made no attack today."

"During the course of the day April 27 our aviators launched 72 shells on the station at Holtzheim (seven miles northwest of Mulhouse) and 40 shells on the station at Chambley, where they set fire to a great number of buildings."

"The station at Annville on the railway of Chambley and Thiaucourt was destroyed by our aviators. On April 28 one of our aeroplanes shot down a German aeroplane in the vicinity of Friedrichshafen. The aeroplanes were both destroyed, rising from the roof of one hangar on the station, the bridges and a facade were immediately destroyed. During this bombardment one of our aeroplanes shot down a German aeroplane. During the course of the day four German machines were pursued and destroyed by our aviators."

FREE SPEECH LECTURE FOR PROF. KLEIN MEYER

Harvard President Replies to German Scholar in Regard to "Gott Mit Uns" Poem.

Cambridge, Mass., April 28.—President Lowell, of Harvard, made public today his reply to the letter addressed to him by Professor Klein Meyer, of the University of Berlin, in which the latter protested against publication of a Harvard student paper of an anti-German poem, entitled "Gott Mit Uns."

Mr. Lowell declined the professor's authorities any responsibility for the verses, but said Harvard's freedom of speech would be preserved. His letter follows:

"Cambridge, Mass., April 28.—My Dear Professor Meyer: Your letter has come, and I am glad to hear of it. I refer to it as a letter of protest. I find that it was a protest of the student body against the publication of an anti-German poem, entitled 'Gott Mit Uns.'"

EUGENE McDOWELL COMMITTS SUICIDE

Well-Known Printer Takes His Life Following Financial Reverses of the Last Few Months.

Eugene P. McDowell, aged 27, a well-known printer, who operates a printing shop in the Louisville and Nashville Terminal building, second floor, following financial reverses of the last few months, committed suicide in his office last night about 7 o'clock by swallowing a vial of carbolic acid.

Mr. McDowell had just telephoned home to his brother, G. B. McDowell, at 128 Grant street, and his wife that he would have to work late, and would not be able to keep an appointment with his wife and mother, Mrs. A. A. McDowell, to call on them to church. The two women left home alone on the next street car for church and he was several hours away from McDowell's death before they were apprised of the tragedy.

Remarkable Remedy That Works All Through Your Body.

When you put a tablespoonful of S. & S. into your stomach it gets straight into your blood. In less than five minutes it has become a wave of restorative influence wherever the blood has circulated. Does this read like magic? But it is absolutely true. The liver, skin and kidneys excrete it only after S. & S. has set in motion millions of cells and nerves to throw off the countless germs that have infected every part of the body. And as S. & S. continues to battle these troublesome pests that gather in the form of pimples, boils, eczema, acne, catarrh, rheumatism, and other so-called blood disorders, it causes into action a myriad of strange but well-understood corporate called leucocytes that actually devour or change or convert disease germs so they are readily and quickly cast out of the body. It is probably the best appreciated blood medicine known. You will find S. & S. in nearly every drug store in the U. S. Get a bottle today. ## GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY FOR COTTON SPINNERS

President Duncan Urges Mill
Men to Work for Expansion of Trade.

Boston, April 28.—A determined campaign for expansion of American trade should be made by manufacturers, declared Albert Green Duncan, of this city, president of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, in an address today at the annual convention of the organization, which was held at the Hotel Waldorf.

"We are only beginning an improvement which we hope will be real and substantial," Mr. Duncan said.

Speaking of general business conditions, Mr. Duncan said: "The natural sequence of our recent national politics and the caused by the fear of the legislative and executive branches of government against business life, but there is no justification for the propaganda which has denounced all business as essentially corrupt and vicious. Corrective legislation is necessary for the excesses that may grow out of our business, but corrective legislation is very different from the restrictive and punitive laws which now burden our statute books."

"Business will have to face many new problems in the next few years. At the close of the war we shall be the one nation that has gained in resources and in the number of its people. The announcement of peace unites opportunities for the development of our American industry and initiative are amply equipped to take advantage of these changed world conditions. As we then to see this golden opportunity slip from our hands because of the handicap of governmental regulation?"

"Business must stand together and demand our representatives in state and national to conserve rather than destroy the business interests of our country."

The limitations on association activities in developing export trade were discussed by Professor Paul T. Cherington, of Harvard University, in a paper presented to the meeting. Professor Cherington urged greater individual initiative and effort on the part of manufacturers.

BENSON NAMED CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS

Washington, April 28.—Secretary Daniels today appointed Captain William S. Benson as chief of operations of the navy. Captain Benson is now commanding of the Philadelphia navy yard.

Captain Benson was given recess appointment by President Wilson, subject to confirmation by the senate at the next session of congress. He will take up his work next Saturday with the rank of rear admiral, while on the same day Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, whose office as aid for operations is absorbed in the new post, will begin his duties as chief of staff of the Naval War college at Newport.

The chief of operations will face a tremendous task, the most important feature of which will be the preparation of plans under the secretary's direction, for operation of the fleet in time of war and their movements in normal periods. In the absence of the secretary and the assistant secretary, he will be acting secretary of the navy. An assistant chief of operations, not below captain in rank, is to be named later.

HORSE TRADERS CLAN GATHER IN ATLANTA TO BURY THEIR DEAD

Two members of the Irish Horse Traders, who have died during the past year, were buried in Atlanta yesterday. The services were held in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, which was attended by about 250 of the clan who had gathered in the city from various sections of the United States. After the ceremonies peculiar to the clan had been completed the traders disbanded to their several camps. It is the peculiar custom of these people to bury their dead only on April 28 of each year.

The dead were Eddie Carroll, aged 25, of Atlanta, who was buried in West View, and Kate Sherlock, 3 years old, of Waycross, who was buried in Oakland cemetery.

SAYS PLUMBING THIEVES ARE ACTIVE IN ATLANTA

J. W. Stuchlick, of 148 Cooper street, complains to the police that the plumbing thieves are still as active in Atlanta as ever. He states that the lining of the water tank in his vacant house at 27 Fulton street has recently been carried away. Mr. Stuchlick also states that a large number of the vandals in the city have been robbing in like manner. He asks that the police be more active in watching such unprotected property.

SECOND AMERICAN NOTE IN REGARD TO THE FRYE

Washington, April 28.—A second note from the United States to Germany concerning the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye by the commerce raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich was dispatched to Berlin today. It is understood it accepts the German proposal to compensate the owners of the Frye under the terms of the old Prussian-American treaties of 1799 and 1824, regardless of any prize court decision.

These treaties provide that contraband belonging to the subjects of either party shall not be captured by the other in any case, but may be detained or used only in consideration of payment of the full value.

While willing to agree to payment of the full value, the United States stands by its original protest against the destruction of the ship as a violation of international law and again denies that the wheat cargo was contraband. No claim for the cargo was made, however, as it was sold en route to British dealers.

An effort is said to have been made in the latest note to narrow the application of the old treaties so that no precedent will be created warranting the lodgment under them in future of claims against the American government under favored nation clause. There has been varying construction in the past of the treaties.

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

A Kansas City Lady Darkened Her Gray Hair and Stimulated Its Growth by a Simple Home Process.

She Tells How She Did It.

A well-known resident of Kansas City, Mo., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home process, made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray hair, stimulate its growth and make it soft and glossy with this simple process, which they can mix at home. To half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, 1 small box of Bacto Compound and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair of the head daily until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently, then wash with soap and water. This mixture relieves scalp troubles and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair. It does not stain the scalp, is not sticky, greasy and does not rub out. It will make a gray haired person look 10 to 20 years younger."

Human Factors in Telephone Service

It takes a lot of people working together intelligently and harmoniously with the best telephone equipment to give good telephone service.

The information operator, the engineer who plans for your future needs, the line tester, and the accountant who makes out your bills for telephone service, are a few of the many kinds of telephone workers who co-operate to make the Bell system the most efficient in the world.

The telephone service you receive daily is a part of the unequalled service of the vast Bell system. It has the best thought of a trained organization working together with the best telephone equipment and standardized methods to provide universal service for the American nation as a whole.

To realize such ideals your co-operation is necessary when you deal with telephone employees or with other telephone subscribers.

GASES USED BY GERMANS DEADLY TO THE BRITISH

Medical Expert Asserts Chlorine or Bromide Was Used. Victims Asphyxiated.

London, April 28.—Dr. John S. Haldane, who was sent to France to observe the effect of the gas used by the Germans in their attack on Ypres, reports that he examined several Canadians incapacitated by the gas.

"These men," he said, "were struggling for breath and were blue in the face. I ascertained that there was nothing to account for the blue color and their struggles in air, but they were suffering from asphyxiation, such as is caused by the inhalation of an irritant gas. Their statements were that they had been overwhelmed in the trenches by an irritant gas produced by the Germans. The gas was carried toward them by a gentle breeze."

Cause of Asphyxiation.
"One of the men died shortly after the attack. A post-mortem examination showed that death was due to asphyxiation and its secondary effects. There was no doubt that the asphyxiation was caused by the inhalation of an irritant gas. The gas was carried toward them by a gentle breeze."

When it reached our first trenches the gas was carried toward them by a gentle breeze. The gas was carried toward them by a gentle breeze. The gas was carried toward them by a gentle breeze.

Season's Greatest Audience Applauds Stars of "Carmen"

The Atlanta Auditorium staged two most successful last night—Misses "Carmen," and Gertrude Farrar's concert of the title role.

That this last will be the high-water mark of creative achievement in the Metropolitan company for some time is surely a safe prediction.

At first the audience of Farrar's impersonation, even her appearance, was a surprise. Before she was half-way through the first act the marvel was that these three performers had been able to play any other kind of Carmen than Farrar made her.

The women in history have made and named men have not usually been beautiful, and not always refined. In romance they are. Farrar's cigarette girl, holding in the hollow of her throat the little white world, belonged in the first class. She was not plump and white and pretty, but she was a live woman, impassioned, humble and ready with every ingenuity of the woman who is both fascinating and unscrupulous to gain the admiration that is her food and drink, and then to cast it aside for a new relish.

In New York the criticism of Farrar's first performance of Carmen was that it was too intellectual, but that it would develop, as do all her roles. Both statements are still true. Intellectual is her conception. In that every glance of the eye, every movement, every intonation, in the glance, the movement, the intonation, which at the particular moment, describes the intellectual is her conception. In that every glance of the eye, every movement, every intonation, in the glance, the movement, the intonation, which at the particular moment, describes the intellectual is her conception.

Both statements are still true. Intellectual is her conception. ## FOR CREDITS BY STATE ACTION

Harding Proposal Will Be Discussed at Chattanooga. Adamson Speaks on Water Power—Suffrage Question Injected.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 28.—An important symposium on rural credits, which will lead to the inauguration of a campaign by the Southern Conference for Education and Industry to put its force behind the campaign for this legislation, will be held tomorrow as a feature of the third day's session of the conference.

Proposal of Harding.—The proposal of W. P. D. Harding, member of the federal reserve board, for rural credits by state action, was submitted and discussed by John L. Coulter, of Nashville, Tenn., who was a member of the American commission which went to Europe to study agricultural systems of finance. T. J. Brooks, of Mississippi, another member of the commission, presented his views.

Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, a member of the congressional committee named to frame a bill for submission at the next session, has been detained in Washington by illness in his family, and his speech will be read.

Representative William C. Adamson, of Georgia, chairman of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, spoke today on the importance of water power development in promoting southern prosperity, and urged the conference to study agricultural credit systems of other countries. He called attention to the wonderful water power development around Chattanooga, promoted by the late Senator N. Brady, of New York, and said the south had two-thirds of the undeveloped water power in the United States outside of the cotton domain.

Suffrage Question Injected.—Suffrage was injected into the conference of southern women today despite the efforts of the leaders to keep out this and other controversial issues. It was a sweeping victory. A resolution offered by Mrs. J. W. Burdette, of Lexington, Ky., was adopted. It reads:

Resolved, that a large educational work can only be accomplished in the shortest time by the employment of the help of the whole people; that the mother sex should take in this generation, as it has in the past, an important part in the education of the young; that the state should take in her educational problem the help of every woman in the state; that the state should make the most effective use of the help of every woman in the state; that the state should make the most effective use of the help of every woman in the state; that the state should make the most effective use of the help of every woman in the state.

The adoption of this resolution caused the members to break into a riot. Many members thought it a mistake.

Harding Predicts Business Revival.—Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway, made an address on an early revival of business and substantial prosperity. He said he was prepared to deliver the conference and read in his absence by C. Williams, assistant to the president.

"Looking beyond the immediate present," said Mr. Harrison, "I believe that the outlook for the south has never been more promising. Wonderful as has been the progress of the last thirty years, the industrial development of the south has only begun, and conferences, such as these, bringing together leaders of southern thought and action, may be made important factors in bringing about the more rapid development of the future to which we may look forward with confidence."

Libraries for Rural Counties.—To mold public sentiment for ten years to the end of establishing a rural library in every southern county is the ideal promulgated by P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, in an address to the Southern Writers' League, holding their annual session here in connection with the annual conference for Education and Industry. He unfolded a comprehensive plan for the establishment of libraries in every county of the south, and sub-branches to communities.

HER FIGHT FOR LIBERTY LOST BY MRS. PLYANT

Mrs. Ethel Oakes Plyant, the pretty 16-year-old girl who was taken from her husband but a few days after their marriage and sent to the Georgia Training School for Girls, is now fighting for liberation on a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Ben Hill Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Plyant was accused of having been a girl confidante and aide to the famous "White Cap" gang of boy criminals. On these grounds, among others, her husband succeeded in getting her into the detention home. Judge Hill decided that the case should be decided on the merits of the case.

The young husband was released to fight for the freedom of his wife. It was at his home that he was arrested. He was released on a writ of habeas corpus. The husband was released on a writ of habeas corpus. The husband was released on a writ of habeas corpus.

SELLING BAD EGGS LAID TO PHILLIPS: FINED BY RECORDER

It's pluperfect nonsense to talk about the high cost of living when chickens have been selling in Atlanta for 14¢ a dozen. Don't believe it.

The recorder of the police court for Wednesday afternoon, William Rulman, a grocer at 222 Highland avenue, and H. W. Warren, a grocer at 444 East Fair street, testified that they had sold chickens at that price.

Ben Phillips, a young man who works for a produce house, was arraigned for selling eggs to the two grocers on March 2. That, at 14¢ a dozen, the eggs had dead chickens in them.

They said that Phillips claimed that he brought the eggs from DeKalb county and that they were fresh country eggs. He sold them as such, and every one of them were returned because they had chickens in them. They also said that Phillips gave his name as the man who sold the eggs.

Phillips denied the whole story. He said that it was a case of mistaken identity.

The recorder fined Phillips $15 for selling unsound produce and held him in a bond of $100 for cheating and swindling.

The case was made by Inspectors Wasson and Hilley.

COMMERCIAL COUNCIL

Speakers Before Commercial Congress Stress Need of Crop Diversification. Immigrants Also Needed to Develop Resources.

Muskogee, Okla., April 28.—Closer relations between the employer and employee, crop diversification and more liberal treatment for the small farmer were urged by speakers at tonight's session of the Southern Commercial Congress as essential to the commercial development of the south.

Both the wage earner and the employer must accept the other as partners in production," declared Louis F. Post, assistant secretary of the United States labor bureau. "Wage earning interests cannot be promoted by obstructing legitimate commercial enterprises any more than legitimate commercial enterprises can be promoted by strangling wage earning interests."

The wage earner interest is as truly commercial as that of his employer, and you eliminate the one, you eliminate the other.

The wage earners of the country number about one-third the whole population," he said. "Of children from 10 to 14 years of age, there are at least half a million employed, not counting those in agricultural work."

Crop Diversification Urged.—The need of crop diversification was stressed by E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture of South Carolina.

"It took just one year of crisis as the European war to make the people of the south realize the advantages of crop diversification," he said. "For years we have been mining the soil and not adding to it, and replanting it as we are told to do by the Bible."

Mr. Watson declared that the soil of the south is being exhausted. He said that the soil is being exhausted. He said that the soil is being exhausted.

Alto Wilkerson on Trial: Is Charged With Killing Man in Dispute Over Cow

Colquitt, Ga., April 28.—(Special.)—Alto Wilkerson, charged with the murder of Will C. Holland, is being tried in Miller county superior court in session here. Both men formerly resided near Columbus, Ala., moving to this county a few months ago and were neighbors. They had a dispute about a cow, which terminated by Wilkerson shooting Holland to death. A verdict will probably be reached soon.

Another case to be tried is against Allen Andrew for the killing of E. Phillips, a white farmer.

The largest civil case ever filed in this county, involving about $50,000, wherein the State Mutual Life Insurance company of Home, Ga., was defendant, was dismissed this week by the court's sustaining a plea to the effect that the suit should have been brought in Floyd county.

GRAND JURY IN CLARKE INDICTS BEER DEALERS

Athens, Ga., April 28.—(Special.)—The grand jury of Clarke has indicted fifteen beer dealers, wholesalers and retailers, as alleged violators of the state prohibition law, on evidence which it is said indicated that the beverage sold will intoxicate if drunk to excess.

NAT HARRIS TALKS ABOUT FRANK CASE

Asks Commission to Neither Delay Nor Hurry Consideration of Case—Would Stop Letter Writers.

Macon, Ga., April 28.—(Special.)—Governor-elect Nat E. Harris candidly admits that he wishes the Frank case would let up on him relative to the Frank case. Today a reporter called on him in his office and found him buried in a mass of letters nearly chin high, some calling on him to pardon Frank if the case comes before him after he assumes the governorship and others just as insistent that he let the case alone.

Nat Harris says he doesn't know the question of pardoning Frank will come before him and this afternoon which will have a large number of people in it. He said he would like to see E. J. Rainey, a member of the senate, and would like to see him to ask the commission in his name to let the case alone.
